¹Pope Francis, Address to Educators of the Jesuit Schools of Italy & Albania, 2013

SATURDAY 22 MARCH / 9.15AM - 5.00PM / VILLA MARIA COLLEGE

$35 per person (includes morning tea, lunch and refreshments)

“We do well to keep in mind the early Christians and our many brothers and sisters throughout history who were filled with joy, unflagging courage and zeal in proclaiming the Gospel. Some people nowadays console themselves by saying that things are not as easy as they used to be, yet we know that the Roman empire was not conducive to the Gospel message, the struggle for justice, or the defence of human dignity. Every period of history is marked by the presence of human weakness, self-absorption, complacency and selfishness, to say nothing of the concupiscence which preys upon us all. These things are ever present under one guise or another; they are due to our human limits rather than particular situations. Let us not say, then, that things are harder today; they are simply different.” (263)²
